PARAMOUNT
LUXURY VINYL TILE

Durable, Attractive, Economical

Designed to Perform

Paramount Luxury Vinyl Tiles are produced from the highest quality materials. Our state of the art manufacturing process is engineered to provide unsurpassed durability and aesthetics. Paramount's plank and tile products are produced with a strong foundation, covered with eye perfect, realistic graphics, and finished with a UV cured wear layer for ultimate durability.

Base layer:
Our compact, sturdy, yet flexible, sound absorbing vinyl backing allows for ease of installation and resilience.

Middle layer:
The tile's core, providing strength and stability.

Photographic film:
Our HD print film provides explicit detail and realism.

Wear layer:
20-40 mil embossed wear layer for performance in commercial environments.

Polyurethane coating:
UV cured polyurethane finish that allows for low maintenance and eliminates the use of harsh environmental and IAQ impacting cleaning chemicals.

At Paramount LVT you'll find the right floor for your space, your needs and your style. Our exceptional Luxury Vinyl Tiles have become an increasingly popular and exciting choice for homes, work spaces and health care facilities.

Installation Solutions

Paramount LVT Loose-Lay series & Click series are innovative formats of luxury vinyl flooring that's both quick and easy to install. These options have been tried and tested in several markets worldwide, proving themselves to be ideal flooring systems.

Loose-Lay Series:
Paramount's Loose-Lay series is a floating floor system that is designed to minimize sub floor preparation, and installation costs. With its patented Grip Technology, Loose-Lay Luxury Vinyl Tiles require almost no adhesive and minimal floor prep. It is suitable for raised access floors, easy and economical to repair, possible to install over most existing hard floors and requires little or no adhesive in most installations. This easy to install option is the premier choice for property management companies and nursing homes.

Loose-Lay series is available in the identical assortment of colors and styles as traditional dry back (glue down) luxury vinyl tiles.

Click Series
Paramount's click flooring is a floating locking system that simplifies luxury vinyl tile installation. Our special tongue-and-groove technology easily creates an exceptional tight connection, ensuring a uniformed installation.
